

ANGEL

(T: K. Scholz)

You must have been hiding in the wings
While I was busy doing unimportant things Like clicking my heels forever
Oh, and ever,
Just wishing for a sound.

I bet all the time, Angel,
You were smiling down.

You bring up a thousand golden dreams
And I remember all the hidden joy in me.
Now living today feels better
So much better
For I've been lost and found

And all the time, Angel,
You are smiling down.

No matter how long it'll last,
No matter how far we'll come,
No matter how hard I'll fall,
No matter how many deaths I'll die,
It's worth it,
It's magic.

Now I believe in angels, 'cause I believe in you,
But still I can't believe my luck,
Who sent you down to prove
That sometimes, somewhere, someone up there really cares ?
On the wings of sound

I bet all the time, Angel,
they are smiling down.

I bet all the time, Angel,
they are smiling down.

I bet all the time, Angel,
they are smiling down.

I bet all the time, Angel,
they are smiling down.

I bet all the time, Angel,
they are smiling down.

I bet all the time, Angel,
they are smiling down,
down,
down.
