

HOLD ON

(T: H. Stahn)

Say how long has this been going on ?
Has it only just begun ?
Even though it feels like yesterday we met
I know that you're the one.

Girl I know that you've been hurt before,
And maybe you don't want to say
That you could share your every day and night with me,
But I can feel it when you stay.

Nothing really matters now,
We will make it through somehow
Just as long as you believe
That this is all you need

Hold on to all the days,
Hold on to all the nights,
Hold on to all we've got,
Hold on to all we've got...
Hold on to all the days,
Hold on to all the nights,
Hold on to all we've got,
Hold on to all we've got...

What makes you turn away from me today ?
Did you go and change your mind ?
You act as if a shadow you once cast away
Now hits you from behind.

Don't give up on us so fast
Don't you feel that this could last ?
Can't you see I'm on your side ?
And there's no need to cry

Hold on to all the days,
Hold on to all the nights,
Hold on to all we've got,
Hold on to all we've got...
Hold on to all the days,
Hold on to all the nights,
Hold on to all we've got,
Hold on to all we've got...

Oh-oh, hold on to all we've got,
Hold on to all we've got,
Hold on to all we've got,
Oh...

Oh-oh, hold on to all we've got,
Hold on to all we've got,
Hold on to all we've got,
Oh...

Hold on to all the days,
Hold on to all the nights,
Hold on to all we've got,
Hold on to all we've got...
Hold on to all the days,
Hold on to all the nights,
Hold on to all we've got,
Hold on to all we've got...
Hold on to all the days,
Hold on to all the nights,
Hold on to all we've got,
Hold on to all we've got...
