

HOME TONIGHT

(T: H. Stahn)

It's not good to drink this wine alone,
It's not good when you're not coming home,
I'm sitting here just waiting for you,
But there's nothing I can do to bring you home tonight.

We've made mistakes, we've lost our way.
I can see clearly now that you've walked away.

Why are you so confused,
Not knowing what to do?
You've left me here with nothing
But the memory of you.
I need you here beside me,
Just want to hold you tight.
Oh, baby, please come back
Into my arms tonight.

I'll do anything to make your dreams come true
'Cause these dreams they are the same for me and you.
Without your love I'm just a lonely fool,
But there is nothing I can do to bring you home...

Can't you see this broken heart of mine?
Give us a second chance 'cause all we need is time.

Why are you so confused,
Not knowing what to do?
But the memory of you.
I don't want to live without you,
I just want to hold you tight.
Oh, baby, please come back,
Baby, please come back,
Oh baby, please come back
Into my arms tonight.
