

ONCE IN A WHILE

(T: K. Scholz)

Once in a while
We all will find
That life runs in funny ways
Sometimes

To make us agree
Only in need
We recognize the ones we see.

They give us love, and love
Makes a frightened heart be still.
Though it may seem no-one cares,
Somebody always will.

Once in a while
We all deny
That love has failed and left us to
Song rhymes.

The listeners we've got
Assure us we're not
The only ones to bear this lot.

They give us love, and love
Makes a frightened heart be still.
Though it may seem no-one cares,
Somebody always will.

Love, and love
Makes a frightened heart be still.
Though it may seem no-one cares,
Somebody always will.

Once in a while
We'll stand behind
An old friend scared of loving the Wrong kind.

The pains that we share
The way that we care
Reminds us of who's always,

Always there with love, and love
Makes a frightened heart be still.
Though it may seem no-one cares,
Somebody always will.

Though it may seem no-one cares,
Somebody always will.

Though it may seem no-one cares,
Somebody always will...
